

Smart Health Has Arrived

Introducing Shae™. The world's most advanced virtual health assistant.

The evolution of ph360 has arrived.

This changes everything.

You want your health back, your feelings of well-being and vitality. You want to look and feel your best. You want to prevent chronic illness. And you want to make sense of all that conflicting information out there and do what works for you.

The World's First Personalized Health Program...in the palm of your hand

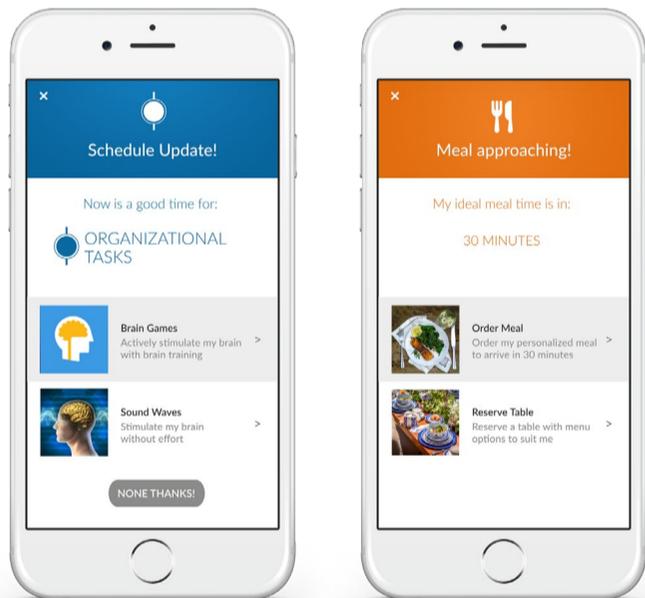

You know you're unique. There is no-one else just like you. We know that too. So why should you eat, exercise, sleep, live, work, socialize and love like everyone else? You shouldn't.

Meet Shae™ .

Shae™ is the evolution of ph360. All of the features of ph360, now in the palm of your hand. If you are suffering illness or disease, Shae™ can help you regain equilibrium in your body. If you are healthy, Shae™ takes the guesswork out of staying that way. If you want to take your health to the next level, Shae™ will challenge you to get there every single day.

Shae™ – technology and science unite – personalized data display, complete food suite, integration with wearable devices, sleep assist, schedule optimizer and so much more.

What are the benefits to me?

Those are as unique as you are. What do you need to transform? Many have experienced increased energy, improved concentration and productivity, reduced feelings of stress and greater vitality. Others have experienced a range of benefits from extreme weight loss to the end of migraines, insomnia, skin problems, digestive issues, control of autoimmune disorders and even helping reduce negative effects from treatment during serious illnesses like cancer.

How does it work?

1. Create your profile
2. Discover yourself
3. Balance your life

*You can share in personalized health and share Shae™
The Global ChangeMakers Initiative*
